SUNDAY

A DAY OF REST.

When our first store opened in 2007, we made the decision to close on Sundays – a decision that is at the core of who we are as a company. Our people are important to us, and we believe that all of our employees deserve the opportunity to rest, to spend time with family and friends, and worship if they choose to do so. As we like to say, panini is what we do, but our people are who we are. Closing on Sundays is one way that we live out that belief, and we are so thankful for our awesome customers who support us! We hope that you enjoy a day of rest as well.

Deo gratias.
